CONFERENCE INFORMATION PACKET

Thank-you for registering with us for the upcoming ILD Conference Oct 3-5
If you haven't registered, please do, so that we can get an accurate count for the meals provided!

We hope that this conference will benefit you both in spirit and in fellowship!
This information packet is prepared so that you can make your travel plans to come to Klamath Falls.

TRAVELING TO OREGON

The airport in Klamath is at presently closed except for private airplanes.

FROM PORTLAND AIRPORT

By CAR: car rentals available at airport. Klamath Falls is about 5 (+ or -) hours drive.

- By AMTRAK: From Portland Airport take the RED MAX and get off at the Rose Quarter stop then take the GREEN MAX to Union Station.
Train leaves Union Station at 2:00pm to Klamath Falls. Train takes about 8 hours arriving about 100:pm. RETURN: Train leaves Klamath Falls at about 8:00 in the morning (note: this train sometimes can be late due to coming from Southern California.) Please the contact us page to request MAX and AMTRAK Schedules.

FROM MEDFORD AIRPORT

By CAR: car rentals available at airport. Klamath Falls is about 1 1/2 hours drive (80 miles away). To find out road conditions in Oregon (conditions, closures, etc.), the following link will give this information along with camera

ACCOMODATIONS AND ATTRACTIONS IN KLAMATH FALLS

The following link will provide information on accommodations and attractions in and around Klamath Falls. Crater lake is the main attraction in the county (about 45 miles away – 1 hour drive) and well worth the trip out.

<http://view.klamathmagazine.com/>

Pages open like a book from top right or left corners.

ACCOMODATIONS: See page 50 in the book. Best hotels are on South 6th Street and close to fast food places. Microtel on Dakota Street is kitty-cat from Walmart and next to Epic Bowling Center is another good Hotel. Prices are usually lower tha other metropolitan areas.

CONFERENCE: At present, the conference will be hosted a church which is about 14 miles away. Complete schedule along with a map to get to the church will be posted and sent later. Two lunches and a dinner will be provided.
